- Up to 3 athletes per category

20th Asian Games Aichi-Nagoya 2026 Qualification:

These championships will not only showcase the exceptional talent from across our member nations but will also serve as a vital qualifying event for the 20th Asian Games Aichi-Nagoya 2026.

We are pleased to inform you that the national rankings determined from the Open Men and Open Women divisions will form the basis for qualification toward the Asian Games.

Annual General Meeting:

In conjunction with the championships, ASF will convene its Annual General Meeting (AGM). This important gathering will provide a valuable forum for member federations to come together, discuss strategic directions, and collaborate on the further advancement of surfing in Asia.

Further information regarding the agenda, meeting venue, and schedule will be circulated in the coming weeks.

Preparation and Further Information:

Recognizing the importance of early planning, we encourage all member federations to begin preparations for participation.

Additional details, including the registration process, logistical information, and specific guidelines regarding Asian Games qualification, will be announced by mid-May 2025.

Your enthusiastic participation and support are essential to the success of the ASF Asian Surfing Championships and to the continued elevation of surfing in our region.

We look forward to welcoming your teams to Mahabalipuram for what promises to be a truly memorable and inspiring competition.

Thank you for your unwavering dedication to the development of surfing in Asia. Together, let us make the ASF Asian Surfing Championships 2025 a historic and outstanding event.
